

Remarks

In the Amendment dated December 29, 2005, the status identifier for claim 90 should have been "currently amended." In addition, claim 1 should have been shown in the listing of claims with the comma after "second motor molecule" in double brackets. These corrections have been made to the listing of claims included with this Response to Non-Compliant Amendment. Should there be any additional questions regarding this application, Examiner Smith is invited to contact the undersigned attorney at the telephone number shown below.

Respectfully submitted,
